WILLIAMSBURG, May 11.

To his Excellency the Right Hon. NORBORNE Baron de BOTETOURT, his Majeſty's Lieutenant and Governor General of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of BURGESSES.

MY LORD,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeſſes of Virginia, now met in General Aſſembly, humbly beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere and unfeigned Thanks for your very affectionate Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion; and we do, with the higheſt Satisfaction and Pleaſure, embrace this firſt Opportunity which has been offered us, as well for ourſelves, as in Behalf of all our Conſtituents, to congratulate your Excellency on your Appointment to this Government, and your ſafe and early Arrival.

The Aſſurances of the Royal Favour, communicated to us through your Excellency, cannot but impreſs the Heart of every Virginian with the moſt lively and indelible Sentiments of Duty and Affection. Permit us then, my Lord, to renew our Aſſurances to your Excellency, of our moſt cordial and inviolable Attachment to His Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, the real Happineſs and Proſperity of which have ever been the grand leading Objects of our warmeſt Wiſhes.

His Majeſty's gracious Appointment of your Lordſhip to ſo important a Station, at the ſame Time that it holds forth to the World the ſtrongeſt Evidence of your Lordſhip's exceeding Merit, is a recent Proof to us of his paternal Affection for this his ancient and loyal Colony.

We receive, with equal Pleaſure and Gratitude, the Intimation of his Majeſty's gracious Purpoſe, that his chief Governors of Virginia ſhall in future reſide within their Government, as from hence we are perſuaded, that much Honour, and many ſignal Advantages, will redound to the Colony; and we do aſſure your Lordſhip, with that Sincerity which Truth ought ever to inſpire, that we eſteem, as a peculiar Mark of the Royal Attention to our Happineſs, your Lordſhip's Appointment to preſide over us, ſince we cannot but regard the Diſplay of ſo many Virtues and Abilities, during the ſhort Time of your Reſidence here, as a ſure Preſage, that Wiſdom and Benevolence will eminently diſtinguiſh your Lordſhip's Adminiſtration.

As we ſhall ever participate even of His Majeſty's domeſtic Felicity, we do very cordially congratulate your Lordſhip, as the immediate Repreſentative of the beſt of Sovereigns, on the late Birth of a Princeſs, an additional and endearing Pledge to the Britiſh Nation, and all its Connections; and it is with great Pleaſure we learn, that Her Majeſty and the Royal Infant are in perfect Health.

It is an indiſpenſible Duty which we owe to our Conſtituents, and which at preſent is ſtrongly enforced by your Lordſhip's Recommendation and Advice, that we ſhould diſpaſſionately, and with the greateſt Candour, conſider the important Buſineſs upon which we are now aſſembled; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that if, in the Courſe of our Deliberations, any Matters ſhould ariſe, which may in any Sort affect Great-Britain, they ſhall be diſcuſſed on this ruling Principle, that both our Intereſts are inſeparably the ſame.

It only remains, my Lord, for us to offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to that Supreme Being, the Sovereign Diſpenſer of every good and perfect Gift, beſeeching him to inſpire your Lordſhip with all Wiſdom, and that His Majeſty will long continue you the happy Ruler of a free and happy People."

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleaſed to return the following

ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I CORDIALLY pray for that Wiſdom which you have kindly implored the Almighty to grant me.

My Situation calls for it, and the People of Virginia have a Right to expect it.

When my gracious Maſter ordered me here, he commanded me to do Juſtice, and to maintain the Rights of all his Subjects; I joyfully accepted the glorious Command, and in the Execution of it, will exert that honeſt Zeal, which all good Men will approve.

His Majeſty ſhall be fully informed of your Expreſſions of Gratitude, Loyalty, and Attachment to his ſacred Perſon and Government, and ſhall be told of your Kindneſs to me.

THURSDAY, May 18.

YESTERDAY, at 12 o' Clock, his Excellency the Governor went to the Capitol, and having ſent a Meſſage by Mr. Walthoe to the Hon. the Speaker and Houſe of Burgeſſes, commanding their immediate Attendance in the Council Chamber, which they inſtantly obeyed, he ſpoke to them as follows:

Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of BURGESSES,

I HAVE heard of your Reſolves, and augur ill of their Effects. You have made it my Duty to diſſolve you, and you are diſſolved accordingly.

WEDNESDAY, May 17, 1769.

THE late Repreſentatives of the People then judging it neceſſary that ſome Meaſures ſhould be taken in their diſtreſſed Situation, for preſerving the true and eſſential Intereſts of the Colony, reſolved upon a Meeting for that very ſalutary Purpoſe, and therefore immediately, with the greateſt Order and Decorum, repaired to the Houſe of Mr. Anthony Hay, in this City, where being aſſembled, it was firſt propoſed, for the more decent and regular Diſcuſſion of ſuch Matters as might be taken into Conſideration, that a Moderator ſhould be appointed, and, on the Queſtion being put, Peyton Randolph, Eſq; late Speaker of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, was unanimouſly elected.

The true State of the Colony being then opened, and fully explained, and it being propoſed that a regular Aſſociation ſhould be formed, a Committee was appointed to prepare the neceſſary and moſt proper Regulations for that Purpoſe, and they were ordered to make their Report to the General Meeting the next Day, at 10 o' Clock.

THURSDAY, May 18.

AT a farther Meeting, according to Adjournment, the Committee appointed Yeſterday, made their Report, which being read, ſeriouſly conſidered, and approved, was ſigned by a great Number of the principal Gentlemen of the Colony then preſent, and is as follows:

WE, his Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the late Repreſentatives of all the Freeholders of the Colony of Virginia, avowing our inviolable and unſhaken Fidelity and Loyalty to our moſt gracious Sovereign, our Affection for all our Fellow Subjects of Great-Britain; proteſting againſt every Act or Thing, which may have the moſt diſtant Tendency to interrupt, or in any wiſe diſturb his Majeſty's Peace, and the good Order of his Government in this Colony, which we are reſolved, at the Riſque of our Lives and Fortunes, to maintain and defend; but, at the ſame Time, being deeply affected with the Grievances and Diſtreſſes, with which his Majeſty's American Subjects are oppreſſed, and dreading the Evils which threaten the Ruin of ourſelves and our Poſterity, by reducing us from a free and happy People, to a wretched and miſerable State of Slavery; and having taken into our moſt ſerious Conſideration the preſent State of the Trade of this Colony, and of the American Commerce in general, obſerve with Anxiety, that the Debt due to Great-Britain for Goods imported from thence, is very great, and that the Means of paying this Debt, in the preſent Situation of Affairs, are likely to become more and more precarious; that the Difficulties, under which we now labour, are owing to the Reſtrictions, Prohibitions, and ill adviſed Regulations, in ſeveral late Acts of Parliament of Great-Britain, in particular, that the late unconſtitutional Act, impoſing Duties on Tea, Paper, Glaſs, &c. for the ſole Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America, is injurious to Property, and deſtructive to Liberty, hath a neceſſary Tendency to prevent the Payment of the Debt due from this Colony to Great-Britain, and is, of Conſequence, ruinous to Trade; that, notwithſtanding the many earneſt Applications already made, there is little Reaſon to expect a Redreſs of thoſe Grievances: Therefore, in Juſtice to ourſelves and our Poſterity, as well as to the Traders of Great-Britain concerned in the American Commerce, we, the Subſcribers, have voluntarily and unanimouſly entered into the following Reſolutions, in Hopes that our Example will induce the good People of this Colony to be frugal in the Uſe and Conſumption of Britiſh Manufactures, and that the Merchants and Manufacturers of Great-Britain may, from Motives of Intereſt, Friendſhip, and Juſtice, be engaged to exert themſelves to obtain for us a Redreſs of thoſe Grievances, under which the Trade and Inhabitants of America at preſent labour; We do therefore moſt earneſtly recommend this our Aſſociation to the ſerious Attention of all Gentlemen, Merchants, Traders, and other Inhabitants of this Colony, in Hopes, that they will very readily and cordially accede thereto.

Firſt, It is unanimouſly agreed on and reſolved, this 18th Day of May, 1769, that the Subſcribers, as well by their own Example, as all other legal Ways and Means in their Power, will promote and encourage Induſtry and Frugality, and diſcourage all Manner of Luxury and Extravagance.

Secondly, That they will not at any Time hereafter, directly or indirectly, import, or cauſe to be imported, any Manner of Goods, Merchandize, or Manufactures, which are, or ſhall hereafter be taxed by Act of Parliament, for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America (except Paper, not exceeding Eight Shillings Sterling per Ream, and except ſuch Articles only, as Orders have been already ſent for) nor purchaſe any ſuch after the Firſt Day of September next, of any Perſon whatſoever, but that they will always conſider ſuch Taxation, in every Reſpect, as an abſolute Prohibition, and, in all future Orders, direct their Correſpondents to ſhip them no Goods whatever, taxed as aforeſaid, except as is above excepted.

Thirdly, That the Subſcribers will not hereafter, directly or indirectly, import, or cauſe to be imported from Great-Britain, or any Part of Europe (except ſuch Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of Ireland, as may be immediately and legally brought from thence, and except alſo all ſuch Goods as Orders have been already ſent for) any of the Goods herein after enumerated, viz. Spirits, Wine, Cyder, Perry, Beer, Ale, Malt, Barley, Peaſe, Beef, Pork, Fiſh, Butter, Cheeſe, Tallow, Candles, Oil, Fruit, Sugar, Pickles, Confectionary, Pewter, Hoes, Axes, Watches, Clocks, Tables, Chairs, Looking Glaſſes, Carriages, Joiner's and Cabinet Work of all Sorts, Upholſtery of all Sorts, Trinkets and Jewellery, Plate, and Gold and Silverſmith's Work of all Sorts, Ribbon and Millinery of all Sorts, Lace of all Sorts, India Goods of all Sorts, except Spices, Silks of all Sorts, except ſewing Silk, Cambrick, Lawn, Muſlin, Gauze, except Boulting Cloths, Calicoe or Cotton Stuffs, of more than Two Shillings per Yard, Linens of more than Two Shillings per Yard, Woollens, Worſted Stuffs of all Sorts, of more than One Shilling and Six-pence per Yard, Broadcloths of all Kinds, at more than Eight Shillings per Yard, Narrow Cloths of all Kinds, at more than Three Shillings per Yard, Hats, Stockings (Plad and Iriſh Hoſe excepted) Shoes and Boots, Saddles, and all Manufactures of Leather and Skins of all Kinds, until the late Acts of Parliament, impoſing Duties on Tea, Paper, Glaſs, &c. for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America, are repealed; and that they will not, after the Firſt of September next, purchaſe any of the above enumerated Goods of any Perſon whatſoever, unleſs the above mentioned Acts of Parliament are repealed.

Fourthly, That in all Orders, which any of the Subſcribers may hereafter ſend to Great-Britain, they ſhall, and will, expreſly direct their Correſpondents not to ſhip them any of the before enumerated Goods, until the before mentioned Acts of Parliament are repealed; and if any Goods are ſhipped to them contrary to the Tenor of this Agreement, they will refuſe to take the ſame, or make themſelves chargeable therewith.

Fifthly, That they will not import any Slaves, or purchaſe any imported, after the Firſt Day of November next, until the ſaid Acts of Parliament are repealed.

Sixthly, That they will not import any Wines of any Kind whatever, or purchaſe the ſame from any Perſon whatever, after the Firſt Day of September next, except ſuch Wines as are already ordered, until the Acts of Parliament impoſing Duties thereon are repealed.

Seventhly, For the better Preſervation of the Breed of Sheep, That they will not kill, or ſuffer to be killed, any Lambs, that ſhall be yeaned before the Firſt Day of May, in any Year, nor diſpoſe of ſuch to any Butcher or other Perſon, whom they may have Reaſon to expect intends to kill the ſame.

Eighthly and Laſtly, That theſe Reſolves ſhall be binding on all and each of the Subſcribers, who do hereby each and every Perſon for himſelf, upon his Word and Honour, agree, that he will ſtrictly and firmly adhere to and abide by every Article in this Agreement, from the Time of his ſigning the ſame, for and during the Continuance of the before mentioned Acts of Parliament, or until a general Meeting of the Subſcribers, after one Month's public Notice, ſhall determine otherwiſe, the Second Article of this Agreement ſtill and for ever continuing in full Power and Force.

RESOLVES of the HOUSE of BURGESSES, passed the 16*th of May*, 1769.

RESOLVED, Nemine Contradicente, THAT the ſole Right of impoſing Taxes on the Inhabitants of this his Majeſty's Colony and Dominion of Virginia, is now, and ever hath been, legally and conſtitutionally veſted in the Houſe of Burgeſſes, lawfully convened, according to the antient and eſtabliſhed Practice, with the Conſent of the Council, and of his Majeſty, the King of Great-Britain, or his Governor for the Time being.

RESOLVED, Nemine Contradicente, That it is the undoubted Privilege of the Inhabitants of this Colony, to petition their Sovereign for Redreſs of Grievances; and that it is lawful and expedient to procure the Concurrence of his Majeſty's other Colonies, in dutiful Addreſſes, praying the Royal Interpoſition in Favour of the violated Rights of America.

RESOLVED, Nemine Contradicente, That all Trials for Treaſon, Miſpriſion of Treaſon, or for any Felony or Crime whatſoever, committed and done in this his Majeſty's ſaid Colony and Dominion, by any Perſon or Perſons reſiding therein, ought of Right to be had, and conducted in and before his Majeſty's Courts, held within his ſaid Colony, according to the fixed and known Courſe of Proceeding; and that the ſeizing any Perſon or Perſons reſiding in this Colony, ſuſpected of any Crime whatſoever, committed therein, and ſending ſuch Perſon or Perſons to Places beyond the Sea to be tried, is highly derogatory of the Rights of Britiſh Subjects, as thereby the ineſtimable Privilege of being tried by a Jury from the Vicinage, as well as the Liberty of ſummoning and producing Witneſſes on ſuch Trial, will be taken away from the Party accuſed.

RESOLVED, Nemine Contradicente, That an humble, dutiful, and loyal Addreſs, be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure him of our inviolable Attachment to his ſacred Perſon and Government; and to beſeech his Royal Interpoſition, as the Father of all his People, however remote from the Seat of his Empire, to quiet the Minds of his loyal Subjects of this Colony, and to avert from them thoſe Dangers and Miſeries which will enſue, from the ſeizing and carrying beyond Sea any Perſon reſiding in America, ſuſpected of any Crime whatſoever, to be tried in any other Manner than by the antient and long eſtabliſhed Courſe of Proceeding.

ORDERED, That the Speaker of this Houſe do tranſmit, without Delay, to the Speakers of the ſeveral Houſes of Aſſembly on this Continent, a Copy of the Reſolutions now agreed to by this Houſe, requeſting their Concurrence therein.

The following is an Addreſs to His Majeſty, in their Journal of the Day after.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble ADDRESS of His dutiful and loyal Subjects the HOUSE of BURGESSES of His Majeſty's antient Colony of VIRGINIA, met in General Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe Your MAJESTY,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal, dutiful, and affectionate Subjects, the Houſe of Burgeſſes of this your Majeſty's antient Colony of Virginia, now met in General Aſſembly, beg Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to aſſure your Majeſty, that your faithful Subjects of this Colony, ever diſtinguiſhed by their Loyalty and firm Attachment to your Majeſty and your Royal Anceſtors, far from countenancing Traitors, Treaſons, or Miſprifions of Treaſon, are ready at any Time, to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

It is with the deepeſt Concern, and moſt Heart-felt Grief, that your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects of this Colony find that their Loyalty hath been traduced, and that thoſe Meaſures which a juſt Regard for the Britiſh Conſtitution (dearer to them than Life) made neceſſary Duties, have been miſrepreſented as rebellious Attacks upon your Majeſty's Government.

When we conſider that, by the eſtabliſhed Laws and Conſtitution of this Colony, the moſt ample Proviſion is made for apprehending and puniſhing all thoſe who ſhall dare to engage in any treaſonable Practices againſt your Majeſty, or diſturb the Tranquility of Government, we cannot without Horror think of the new, unuſual, and permit us, with all Humility, to add, unconſtitutional and illegal Mode, recommended to your Majeſty, of ſeizing and carrying beyond Sea the Inhabitants of America, ſuſpected of any Crime, and of trying ſuch Perſons in any other Manner than by the antient and long eſtabliſhed Courſe of Proceeding; for how truly deplorable muſt be the Caſe of a wretched American, who, having incurred the Diſpleaſure of any one in Power, is dragged from his native Home, and his deareſt domeſtic Connections, thrown into a Priſon, not to await his Trial before a Court, Jury or Judges, from a Knowledge of whom he is encouraged to hope for ſpeedy Juſtice, but to exchange his Impriſonment in his own Country for Fetters among Strangers: Conveyed to a diſtant Land, where no Friend, no Relation will alleviate his Diſtreſſes, or miniſter to his Neceſſities, and where no Witneſs can be found to teſtify his Innocence, ſhunned by the Reputable and Honeſt, and conſigned to the Society and Converſe of the Wretched and the Abandoned, he can only pray that he may ſoon end his Miſery with his Life.

Truly alarmed at the fatal Tendency of theſe pernicious Counſels, and with Hearts filled with Anguiſh by ſuch dangerous Invaſions of our deareſt Privileges, we preſume to proſtrate ourſelves at the Foot of your Royal Throne, beſeeching your Majeſty, as our King and Father, to avert from your faithful and loyal Subjects of America, thoſe Miſeries which muſt neceſſarily be the Conſequence of ſuch Meaſures.

After expreſſing our firm Confidence in your Royal Wiſdom and Goodneſs, permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that the moſt fervent Prayers of your People of this Colony, are daily addreſſed to the Almighty, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over Great-Britain, and all your Dominions; and that after Death your Majeſty may taſte the fulleſt Fruition of eternal Bliſs, and that a Deſcendant of your illuſtrious Houſe may reign over the extended Britiſh Empire, until Time ſhall be no more.

The following Order follows the Addreſs.

ORDERED, That Mr. Speaker do tranſmit the ſaid Addreſs to the Agent for this Colony, with Directions to cauſe the ſame to be preſented to his Moſt Excellent Majeſty, and afterwards to be printed and publiſhed in the Engliſh Papers.

ANNAPOLIS, May 25.

We have undoubted Advice, that Lord Botetourt has engaged a Veſſel to ſail immediately for England, in Conſequence of the Meaſures taken by the Aſſembly of Virginia.

Tueſday, the 20th of June next, is appointed for a Meeting here of Gentlemen, from the ſeveral Counties, to conſider of Reſolutions againſt the future Importation of Goods; and each County in the Province is entreated to ſend Four of its Inhabitants, by which it is hoped an Agreement may be formed on mutual Confidence, and with entire Unanimity.

LONDON, March 2.

BY a Letter from Sh------ls, we are informed of the following cruel Affair. A Child about 11 Years of Age, Father- and Motherleſs (of whom his late Maſter gives an exceeding good Character) lives now with the ----------, in this Place; out of whoſe Houſe were miſſing, and ſuppoſed ſtolen, two Table and three Silver Tea Spoons, which were laid to the Charge of this unhappy Child: He was firſt offered a Reward, and then threatened, but ſaid he knew nothing about them: Without any further Ceremony, he was then abuſed in the following Manner: Firſt, they tied him up, and whipped him moſt inhumanly, after which, to add to his Torture, a Perſon pickled him with Salt Brine; he was then carried on board the Hulke, and hung till he was juſt expiring; then taken down, and carried into a Stable, where they ſet him in a Chair, tied his Legs to the Stales, and his Hands to the Elbows of it, then with Matches of Brimſtone burnt him between the Fingers, till you might have ſeen the Bones; he was afterwards carried back again, and put in Darkneſs among the Coals. Since when the Spoons have been found, and in ſuch a Place, where the Child could never have been ſuppoſed to lay them. We are further informed, That the Officers of Minſter Pariſh purpoſe to make a ſtrict Enquiry into this inhuman Affair.

March 14. It is ſaid that the Armaments making in Spain, as well by Land as by Sea, take their Riſe partly from the Expulſion of the Spaniſh Governor and his Retinue, and Troops from New Orleans, and the ceded Territory in Louiſiana, on the Miſſiſippi; and partly from the eager Forwardneſs of the French to gain the entire Dominion of Corſica. The Settlements on the Miſſiſippi were made over by the French to the Crown of Spain, in Conſideration of the Part of Hiſpaniola which they held; and it cannot be imagined, that the Rebellion of the French at New Orleans, againſt their new Sovereign, and the driving away his Officers and Forces, was brought about without ſome extraordinary Connivance or Inſtigation. For how could a ſmall Colony dare to take ſuch Meaſures, without Hopes of finding Protection from ſome higher Power; and if ſuch a Colluſion has been practiſed, it cannot but give Umbrage to the Spaniſh Court, and diſpoſe it to ſeek Redreſs. The intire Poſſeſſion of Corſica, which affects the Intereſt of the Neapolitan State, as well as that of all the other Italian Powers, is not an indifferent Matter to Spain; and we need not wonder to ſee her putting herſelf in a Condition to ſupport the Italian League, if Occaſion ſhould require it.

Extract of a Letter from Maeſtricht, February 20.

"The new raiſed Waldec Regiments, conſiſting of 8 Battalions, are expected to march into this Garriſon next Week, and the firſt Week in April, all the foreign Battalions in the Service of the States. Our Battalions are now raiſed to their full Complement. The Batteries of Fort St. Pierre, which you know cover this Garriſon on one Side, are lately put into the beſt State of Defence, and Quarters are fitting up within the Fort for 3 Battalions.

"A very large Quantity of Tents, Arms, and Ammunition, came up the Meaſe in covered Boats from Holland, and were landed in the Night. Moſt of the old Buildings of this Town are repairing for the Reception of Troops, and very conſiderable Quantities of Bedding is received here. From theſe great Preparations we conjecture, that an Army, and not a Reinforcement to the Garriſon, is expected at Maeſtricht. For ſome Days paſt a Party of Engineers, accompanied by a Detachment of Artillery Men, have been employed in marking out the Ground for an Encampment upon the Plain of La Felt: The Village is the Centre of the Rear. It is ſaid, that a Camp of 25 Battalions, and 4 Regiments of Cavalry, will be formed the Beginning of the Summer, that the Stadtholder may, upon the Plains of La Felt, review the Troops of Holland. This we are deſired to believe; but we take the Liberty of thinking, that from the immenſe Quantities of Ammunition, privately brought into this Garriſon, the Magazines forming within and near this Place, with the vaſt Piles of Ball and Shells upon our Ramparts, are not formed for a Camp of an inactive Nature."

A letter from Stockholm, dated Feb. 21, ſays, "The miſunderſtanding between the King and the Senate does not appear to diminiſh. The government of Weſteras having become vacant, a nomination of three perſons was preſented to his Majeſty, to elect one of them for that poſt; but the King diſpoſed of it in favour of the Baron de Tilas: As he was not one of the three who had been preſented to his Majeſty, the Senate would not acknowledge him, and have ſubſtituted in his room the Grand Bailiff Otton de Marnerfeld."

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, Feb. 17.

"The Engliſh frigate the Æolus is juſt ſailed from this port, with two Engliſh Merchantſhips of the ſame nation. Theſe three veſſels have on board 63 bullocks, a quantity of biſcuits, about 300 cheſts of fuſils and ammunition, gun-powder, and a large ſum of money. At their departure they ſaid they were going to Port Mahon; we have no doubt, however, but that the whole is deſtined for Corſica, being ſuccours ſent by ſome Engliſh Gentlemen to General Paoli. We are aſſured, that he has alſo received a handſome ſum of money from Rome.

"According to the laſt advices from Corſica, the inhabitants, who are ſubject to the French, complain greatly of ſome new taxes impoſed on them; and General Paoli, to avail himſelf of this Circumſtance, hath ſignified to them to unite themſelves with the reſt of the nation, otherwiſe their poſſeſſions ſhall be confiſcated."

March 19. A few days ago, as a Cuſtomhouſe Officer was ſearching for ſome run goods in a houſe at Scots Roſs, near Berwick, he happened to creep below a bed, where the people had placed a double trap for catching of fulmarts, which had often deſtroyed their Decks, when unfortunately his hand ſlipped into one of the ſides of the trap, and was there held faſt; in this ſituation, he was endeavouring with the other to releaſe himſelf, but unluckily it got into the other ſide of the trap, and was likewiſe ſecured; whereupon he immediately called out for help, when the people of the houſe, after ſome delay, came to his aſſiſtance, and after pulling him out by his heels, cut the binding of the trap, and releaſed him. Since which he has declared, he never more will creep under a bed, though in queſt of the beſt brandy that ever came over from France.

March 20. Although the Merchants of New-York and Boſton, have agreed to decline giving Orders for Britiſh Goods, yet we are told by the moſt recent Advices from North-America, that the moſt of the Conſumers are as fond of theſe Articles as ever; and that now is the Time for any of the Natives of this Iſland to make his Fortune, by exporting our Manufactures to the Weſtern Continent, as there is no doubt, but that they will find in theſe Colonies a readier Sale, and better Prices than uſual.

It is very remarkable, that in the Year 1704, but 65 Years ago, the whole Trade with our Plantations was but a few Thouſand Pounds more in the Export Article, and a Third leſs in the Import, than that which we now carry on with the Iſland of Jamaica:

Total Engliſh Plantations in 1704,	483,265	814,491
Jamaica, 1767,	467,681	1,243,242

March 23. We hear that letters from Berlin bring the following particulars of the diſcovery of the amour ſo much talked of: A great perſonage at that place being over fond of an Italian muſician, made him a preſent of a very valuable family diamond ring; which in a few days after he offered to ſale to a jeweller in that city, who knew the ring, and aſked him how he came by it? The Italian anſwered, where I had it, I can have more.---Upon which the jeweller ſtopped the ring, and made it known to a great Potentate, who ordered him at his peril not to divulge this affair to any body, till he heard from him---In the mean time orders were given for them to be privately watched; and the Italian being found in bed with her, he was taken out of the bed-chamber into the next room, and had his head ſevered from his body.

SAVANNAH, in GEORGIA, March 22.

From Grenada we have Advice, that on the 13th of laſt Month, near that Iſland, Captain Daniel Campbell (who formerly commanded a Brig that traded from St. Croix to this Place) in an armed Schooner belonging to the Cuſtom-Houſe there, fell in with a ſmuggling Schooner from Martinico, with a Dutch Pendant, mounting 12 guns, and having 18 white Men on board; and on his hailing them, and deſiring them to ſtrike, received a Broadſide from them; Campbell kept up his fire till he got cloſe to her, and gave them a Diſcharge of his ſmall Arms, and what Guns he could bring to bear on them, which killed the Captain, Boatſwain, and the Man at the Helm; they continued firing for half an Hour afterwards, when the Frenchman ſtruck, and Captain Campbell carried his Prize into Grenada. Her Cargoe of Claret, Oil, &c. is valued at between 2 and 3000 l. Campbell's Mate died of his Wounds ſoon after they got into Port, one of his Men received a Bullet in each Arm, and ſome others were ſlightly wounded; he had 15 Muſket Balls in his Foremaſt, and his Sails very much damaged; he had but 10 Whites and Blacks in all on board, and for his very ſpirited Behaviour has gained great Applauſe.

March 29. The Reverend Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD having ſent over proper Workmen to erect the neceſſary additional Buildings for the intended Academy at the Orphan-Houſe, on Saturday laſt, being the Anniverſary of laying the Foundation of that Houſe in the Year 1739, his Excellency the Governor, attended by moſt of the Members of the Honourable Council, and a great Number of other Gentlemen, after the Service of the Church was performed, and a Sermon preached by the Reverend Mr. Samuel Frink, Rector of Chriſt Church Pariſh, laid the Foundation of both the intended Wings: And the whole Company, being entertained at Dinner in a plentiful and decent Manner, returned to their reſpective Habitations, ſeemingly much pleaſed with the Occaſion of their Meeting, and their Treatment there. From this Beginning we have the moſt ſanguine Hopes, that in a ſhort Time we ſhall enjoy the Advantage of educating our Youth within ourſelves, a Benefit we have in a great Meaſure been deprived of for Want of ſuch an Eſtabliſhment, and therefore have not the leaſt Doubt but every Well-wiſher to this Province, and its Inhabitants, will readily promote this beneficent Undertaking.

April 19. A few Days ago a Sloop was run away with from Sunbury, by one Sherman, the Maſter, having on board a Quantity of Rum, and 700 Dollars, belonging to one Mr. Shaddock, who had chartered her for the Weſt-Indies.

BOSTON, May 22.

The Trial of the Perſons charged with the Murder of Lieutenant Panton, of his Majeſty's Ship Roſe, is to be at the Court-houſe in this Town To-morrow, at 9 o'Clock in the Forenoon.

We hear from Brooklyn, that on the 11th of this Month, a Number of Ladies aſſembled an Hour before Sun-riſe at the Houſe of the Rev. Mr. Jackſon, with their Flax and Wheels; and having ſpent the Day very diligently, they generouſly preſented Mrs. Jackſon with the Fruits of their Induſtry, exactly 92 Skeins of choice Linen Yarn, each Skein containing 20 Knots.

We hear from Salem, that at a Town Meeting held there the laſt Week, they made Choice of Mr. Richard Derby, jun. and Mr. John Pickering, jun. for their Repreſentatives----And that one of the --famous Reſcinders being put up, he had juſt 17 Votes, which is the very identical deteſtable Number.

It is ſaid that the 14th Regiment, now here, is deſtined this Summer for New-York, and the Regiment in that City is to return home.

We hear that a petty Officer, belonging to one of the Veſſels employed in the Service of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at Cape-Ann, having been arreſted for Debt a few Days ago, offered to get Bail, if the Sheriff would go as far as where the Veſſel lay, which being complied with, the Captain, whoſe Name is Fellows, came aſhore with ſeveral of his Hands, armed, who, inſtead of giving Bail (gave Ball) fired ſeveral Shot, and reſcued the Officer; providentially no one was wounded. The Particulars of this Affair we have not yet received; but Repreſentation has been made to Authority, and no doubt Juſtice will take Place.

On Thurſday, the 11th Inſtant, at Night, we had a conſiderable Fall of Snow in this Town and Neighbourhood.

A ſenſible Writer in the Gentleman's Magazine for February 1769, having ſhewn by an Induction of Particulars, that Slavery, in many hideous Forms, prevails over almoſt all Europe, concludes thus.

"Such are a few of the many Inſtances that I have ſeen of Slavery in Europe; but if we look a little farther Eaſtward, we ſhall find that the whole of Aſia is kept in the moſt abject State of Bondage; there is not a Man in that vaſt Region that breathes Liberty. Chains, Irons, and Whips, are there the Concomitants of Power, and therefore always attend the Monarch. May Great-Britain and her Colonies, which, at preſent, have ſuch a noble Senſe of Liberty, ever retain it; and may they always remember, that Soldiers have undone the World.---

"It is a moſt melancholy Reflection, that the Americans, who have been good and loyal Subjects for 150 Years paſt, ſhould, all on a ſudden, and within theſe 5 Years, be thought to have forgotten their Allegiance, and miſtakenly conſidered as diſloyal, ſeditious and factious; and therefore an Army is ſent among them, which, I think, cannot anſwer any one good Purpoſe, but is pregnant with a Thouſand Evils."

NEWPORT, May 22.

Laſt Thurſday 14 young Ladies met at the Houſe of Captain Henry Sowele, in this Town, where they ſpun 48 fifteen knotted Skeins, and 2 Knots of very good fine Linen.

There is now to be ſeen, at the Printing-Office, a Sample of Cloth, made by a young Lady in this Town, which is equal in Width, Fineneſs and Goodneſs, to an Engliſh Plan of 6s. Sterling per Yard, but coſt, with every Charge upon it, not quite 3s. 9d. Sterling per Yard.

By the beſt Calculation, there is more Wool raiſed in this Colony than would clothe the Inhabitants; and there might eaſily be raiſed double that Quantity in three Years Time.

Laſt Tueſday a Sloop from the Weſt-Indies, belonging to Providence in this Colony, was ſeized by the Officers of the Liberty Sloop of War.

Captain John Dupuy, in the Schooner Induſtry, arrived here laſt Friday from Hiſpaniola: On the 13th Inſtant, in Lat. 33:15, Long. 71:30, he ſpoke with Captain John Robinſon, of the Ship Hope, belonging to Philadelphia, bound from South-Carolina to London, 12 Days out, and all well on board.

NEW-LONDON, April 21.

Laſt Saturday a Sloop of about 50 Tons, belonging to Freetown, in the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, -------- Durfey, Maſter, was ſent into this Port by the Liberty Armed Cutter, Captain Reed, who in a ſudden Cruize up Connecticut River, came acroſs ſaid Sloop, with a Quantity of Wood, and two Tierces of Melaſſes on board.---As this Cutter ſtill remains in the River, it is not doubted but the Navigation there will undergo a thorough Inſpection.

April 28. Yeſterday a coaſting Sloop, of about 40 Tons, Eliſha Beckwith, Maſter, was brought from Lyme, by ſome People belonging to the Tender in this Harbour; there being found on board ſaid Sloop, two Kegs of Spirits, and three raw Hides.

NEW-YORK, May 29.

Tueſday laſt Joſeph Andrews, or Anderſon, was executed here, agreeable to his Sentence, as mentioned in our laſt: After which his Body was hung in Chains on the moſt conſpicuous Part of Bedlow's Iſland, in our Bay: He ſaid he was born at Swanzey, in Wales, and made no other Confeſſion of any Conſequence, but that he was guilty of the Crime for which he was to ſuffer.

Thurſday laſt Mrs. RACHEL WILSON, an eminent Preacher among the Friends, arrived here from Philadelphia, and the next Day ſet out for Fluſhing, on Long-Iſland, to attend the Great Meeting held there Yeſterday and To-Day.

By ſome late Accounts from Hiſpaniola, we have a Confirmation of the Intelligence inſerted in our laſt under the Jamaica Head, with this Addition, That the French General had taken up ſome of the principal Planters of the Iſland, and cauſed them to be immediately executed; and that the Inhabitants had in Return hung ſeveral of the King's Troops.

The Hon. Robert R. Livingſton, Eſq; a Freeholder and Inhabitant of the Manor of Livingſton, was, on Thurſday, the 25th Inſtant, unanimouſly elected a Repreſentative for the ſaid Manor, in the Room of Philip Livingſton, Eſq; who was diſmiſſed by a Vote of the Houſe laſt Seſſions, on Account of his being a Non-Reſident.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.

By the HONOURABLE

JOHN PENN, Eſquire,

Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a Number of Perſons, chiefly belonging to the Colony of Connecticut, have lately, as well as at different Times heretofore, without any Licence or Grant from the Honourable the Proprietaries of this Province, or Authority from this Government, made Attempts to poſſeſs themſelves of, and ſettle upon a large Tract of Land within the Limits of this Province, lying at and between Wyoming, on the River Saſquehanna, and Cuſhietunk, on the River Delaware, and by the Intelligence I have this Day received, a large Number of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Colony, in Defiance of all Law and Juſtice, are at this Time with Force and Arms actually poſſeſſing themſelves of, and ſeating the Lands at and near Wyoming, and other Parts of the North-eaſt Branch of Saſquehanna, which have lately been purchaſed of the Indians by the Proprietaries of this Province. AND WHERE-

AS divers People, belonging to the ſaid Colony, have alſo, at different Times, endeavoured to perſuade and inveigle many of the Inhabitants of this and the neighbouring Provinces to confederate and join with them in ſuch their illegal Deſigns, and to aſſiſt in ſettling and holding the ſaid Lands by a ſtrong Hand: WHEREFORE, as well to aſſert the juſt Rights of the Proprietaries of this Province to the ſaid Lands, as to warn and prevent any of the Inhabitants of this Government, from being unwarily drawn in to join the ſaid Intruders in proſecuting their illegal Settlements, I have judged it proper, by and with the Advice of the Council, to iſſue this Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly enjoining and requiring, in His Majeſty's Name, all and every Perſon and Perſons, already ſettled or reſiding on the ſaid Lands, without the Licence of the Proprietaries, or Authority from this Government, immediately to evacuate their Settlements, and to depart and remove themſelves off and from the ſaid Lands without Delay. AND I DO hereby forbid all His Majeſty's Subjects of this, or any other Province or Colony, on any Pretence whatſoever, to intrude upon, ſettle, or poſſeſs any of the aforeſaid Lands, or any other Lands within the Limits of this Province, without the expreſs Permiſſion of the Proprietaries or this Government, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril, and on Pain of being proſecuted with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law. AND I DO hereby alſo ſtrictly charge, enjoin and require all Magiſtrates, Sheriffs, and other Officers, as well as all other His Majeſty's Liege Subjects within this Province, to exert themſelves, and uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to proſecute and bring to Juſtice all Offenders in the Premiſes.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the Sixteenth Day of May, in the Ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-nine.

JOHN PENN.

By his Honour's Command,
JOSEPH SHIPPEN, junior, Secretary.

GOD Save the KING.

Saturday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province adjourned to Monday, the 18th of September next. During the Seſſion the following Laws were paſſed, viz.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intituled, "An Act for granting the Sum of Sixty Thouſand Pounds to the King's Uſe, and for ſtriking Fifty-five Thouſand Pounds thereof in Bills of Credit, and to provide a Fund for ſinking the ſame."

An Act to continue an Act, intituled, "An Act for appointing Wardens for the Port of Philadelphia, and for the better regulating Pilots, plying in the River and Bay of Delaware, and the Price of Pilotage to and from the ſaid Port."

An Act to continue an Act, intituled, "An Act to amend the Act, intituled, an Act for the better Employment, Relief and Support of the Poor within the City of Philadelphia, the Diſtrict of Southwark, the Townſhips of Moyamenſing and Paſſyunk, and the Northern Liberties."

Extract of a Letter from Briſtol, March 25, 1769.

"The whole Kingdom is in a Tumult; God knows what will be the End of ſuch wrong Proceedings on all Sides. I am juſt returned from London, where two Thirds of the People ſeem ripe for Rebellion.-----A new Miniſtry is choſen, but decline entering on their Office, till the old One has taken ſome Method to ſoften Matters.-----The K--- is diſtreſſed beyond Deſcription, and the whole Nation is greatly diſſatisfied."

Captain Harkies, from Briſtol, on the 3d Inſtant, in Lat. 24, Long. 55, ſpoke the Ship Byron, Captain Ruſſell, from London for Charleſtown, 6 Weeks out, all well.

Captain Dingee, from Cork, on the 10th of March, in the Iriſh Channel, ſpoke a Ship, Captain Beatty, of this Port, from Georgia for London, 32 Days out, the Ship very leaky, which obliged him to keep one Pump going; the People all well on board. April 8, in Lat. 32: 44, Long. 28: 30, ſpoke a Ship from Liverpool for Virginia, 30 Days out, but could not learn the Maſter's Name; and on the 14th of May, in Lat. 33: 67, Long. 72: 30, he ſpoke a Ship, Captain Froſt, from London for Baltimore, out 9 Weeks, all well.

Captain Williams, in 6 Weeks from Cadiz, informs, that Captain All, was to ſail two or three Days after him, for this Port.---- On the 18th ult. in Lat. 32: 45, Long. 68, he ſpoke a Sloop, Captain Tudor, from New-York for Antigua, 7 Days out, all well.

Captain Price, from St. Chriſtophers, on the 24th of laſt Month, in Lat. 37: 30, about 45 Leagues from the Land, ſpoke the Brig Samuel, Captain Allen, from this Port for Newry, 3 Days out; the ſame Day he alſo ſpoke the Sloop Charlotte, Captain Story, from St. Euſtatia for Rhode-iſland, 10 Days out, all well in each Veſſel.

Captain Hunter, from London, on the 5th of May, in Lat. 28: 34, Long. 56, ſpoke a Brig, from Piſcataqua for Barbados, 14 Days out; 12th, in Lat. 33, Long. 63, ſpoke a Schooner, Captain Howell, from Virginia for Barbados, out 10 Days; and on the 14th, in Lat. 35: 53, Long. 64, he ſpoke a Ship from New-London, alſo for Barbados, with live Stock, 8 Days out, all well in each Veſſel.

The Deal Caſtle Man of War, from New-York, is arrived in our Bay.

Captain Winter, from this Port, is arrived at St. Chriſtophers.

Laſt Monday Afternoon, as ſome Lads were playing on a Wharff near Market-ſtreet, where there was a Quantity of Mahogany piled up, by ſome Accident one of the Logs fell down on a Boy about 15 Years of Age, and inſtantly killed him.

On Tueſday, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Parlour of a Gentleman's Houſe in Front-ſtreet (while the Family were in other Parts of the Houſe) was robbed of a Silver Slop S.

Bowl, marked I. R, ſix China Cups, with Handles, and ſix large China Saucers. If the Bowl, or China, ſhould be offered for Sale, all Silverſmiths and others, are deſired to ſtop the ſame, with the Party, and give Information to the Printers hereof.

☞ The DIVINITY EXERCISES, which were propoſed to be in the College-Hall on Sunday Evening next, will not be till the Sunday following, being the 11th of June; to begin preciſely at 6 o'Clock. Theſe Exerciſes will conclude the Courſe.

WHEREAS the Partnerſhip of FRANKLIN and HALL, of this City Printers, has now been expired above three Years, and tho' Notice has been often given to thoſe indebted to pay, yet, as little or no Regard has been paid thereto, they are obliged (as their Accounts muſt be cloſed) once more to let all concerned know, that if they do not come and clear off their reſpective Ballances for the Gazette, Advertiſements, and other Printing Buſineſs, in two Months from this Date, they will be under the diſagreeable Neceſſity of bringing them to ſettle in a Manner that will be troubleſome to them, as well as to

FRANKLIN and HALL.

TO BE SOLD,

A TRACT of choice WOODLAND (chiefly Hickory) containing near 100 Acres, ſituate in Blockley Townſhip, and bounded on Haverford and Lancaſter Roads, little more than one Mile from the Corporation Ferry on Schuylkill. There are ſeveral very fine Springs and Runs of Water running through it, and there may be readily made a few Acres of very good Meadow; it will be ſold the whole together, or in ſuch Lots as may ſuit the Buyer. For other Particulars, apply to HENRY LISLE, in Philadelphia, juſt below Second-ſtreet Bridge.

To be SOLD, or LETT on Groundrent for ever, on very eaſy Terms, by ſaid LISLE, ſeveral Lots, of different Dimenſions, Part being on Eighth-ſtreet continued, about 300 Feet to the Southward of Cedar or South-ſtreet of this City, and Part on a very pleaſant 50 Feet Lane or Street, running Weſtward from Southwark; a Plan whereof may be ſeen by applying as above.

N. B. A Purchaſer for the Land in Blockley, on paying one Third Part down, may have two or three Years to pay the other two Thirds, in which Time the Wood, being brought to this City (only three Miles from the Court-houſe) at proper Seaſons, will ſell for more than double the Purchaſe Money, and leave the Land clear to the Owner. †

HUBLEY and GRAFF,

HAVE removed their ſtore into Water-ſtreet, the fourth door below Walnut-ſtreet, where they have for ſale, an aſſortment of ſpring goods, lately imported, amongſt which are, a choice parcel of calicoes and cottons; alſo boxes of tin, ſheet iron, braſs and iron wire, anvils, German ſteel, antimony, pepper, ſaffron, mace, cloves, cinnamon, nutmegs, powder, lead, ſhot, &c. &c. 6 W.

LAWRENCE GROWDON,

Of Benſalem, in Bucks County, intending to quit Farming, has for ſale,

ONE NEGROE LAD, about 17 Years old, and one NEGROE WOMAN, about 20 Years old; both brought up to Country Buſineſs, and have had the Small-pox. ‖

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, will be expoſed to public ſale, on Thurſday, the 8th of June, at 7 o'clock in the evening, at the London Coffee-houſe, a certain lot of ground, ſituate on the ſouth ſide of High-ſtreet, in the city of Philadelphia, containing in breadth 16 feet 6 inches, including the weſtermoſt half part of a certain 2 feet 9 inch and a half alley, and in length or depth about 118 feet 7 inches, to a certain 25 feet alley, commonly called Petty's-Alley; bounded eaſtward by the eaſtermoſt half part of the ſaid 2 feet 9 inch and a half alley, ſouthward by Petty's-Alley aforeſaid, weſtward by ground of Aquilla Jones, and northward by High-ſtreet aforeſaid; having a 3 ſtory brick meſſuage, kitchen, and other back buildings, erected thereon; ſubject to the Proprietaries quitrent of One Shilling ſterling, per annum; late the eſtate of William Clinton, deceaſed, ſeized and taken in execution by JOSEPH REDMAN, Sheriff.

Pompton, Bergen County, Eaſt-Jerſey, May 22, 1769.

WHEREAS on Friday, the 19th inſtant, the Subſcriber lodged in the houſe of the widow Fin, near Pompton, in Bergen county, Eaſt-Jerſey, and a certain John Moore, a Schoolmaſter, lodged along with him, but before morning was gone, and had ſtolen from ſaid Subſcriber 57l. Proc. and a watch, with a china outer caſe, the inner one of ſilver, ſomewhat out of repair. Said Moore is a ſhort groſs man, very broad faced, much pock-broken, and has very black hair; had on a blue coat, ſcarlet jacket, lappel breaſted, new buckſkin breeches, braſs buckles in his ſhoes, and had with him a black velvet jacket and breeches. Any perſon that apprehends ſaid Moore, and lodges him in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſhall have Twenty Dollars reward, and all reaſonable charges, paid by me

ANDREW ARMSTRONG.

Hobb's Hole, Virginia, May 20, 1769.

RUN away from the Subſcriber, the 2d inſtant, a Negroe boy, named Billy, about 15 years old, he is a likely, ſtout, well made lad, and not very black; had on, when he went away, a brown cloth coat, with red ſleeves and collar, and green plains waiſtcoat and breeches. He was ſeen in Richmond county, going upwards, with David Randolph, a cooper by trade, who run away from this town the 5th inſtant; he is a ſtout made fellow; had on, a blue ſerge coat, lappelled, with yellow buttons, a white waiſtcoat, ſtriped with blue (which appeared to be country made) and leather breeches; he had other clothes with him, and ſome cooper's tools. He worked laſt at Mr. James Hunter's, but am told ſerved his time in Philadelphia, and I apprehend will carry the boy to Maryland or Pennſylvania, to ſell him. Whoever takes up the ſaid boy, and ſecures him, ſo that I may get him again, ſhall receive Five Pounds, if taken in the colony, if out of the colony TEN POUNDS, from

JOHN BROCKENBROUGH.

Cheſter, May 20, 1769.

THIS day was committed to my cuſtody, on ſuſpicion of being a runaway ſervant, an Engliſhman, who calls himſelf MINTI HANNUMS; he is about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, pock-marked, of a dark complexion, wears his own dark coloured hair, a home made dark coloured cloth coat, with metal buttons, brown coloured broadcloth breeches, ozenbrigs ſhirt, old yarn ſtockings, coarſe ſhoes, and a felt hat; and ſays that he lived with William Evans, in Talbot county, but that he is no ſervant. His maſter, if any, is deſired to come and pay charges, and take him away, or he will be diſcharged in four weeks from the date hereof.

§ CHARLES WILSON.

RUN away, on the 4th of May laſt, from the Subſcriber, living near Annapolis, in Maryland, two convict ſervant men, viz. JOSEPH PENICK, about 5 feet 8 inches high, of a brown complexion, black hair, and black eyes; had on, when he went away, a light coloured fearnought jacket; his other apparel uncertain: It is ſuppoſed one of them has a pair of leather breeches, with a gore down each thigh, he ſpeaks quick, and pretends to many things, and is a young man, about 23 or 24 years of age. THOMAS ELTON, about 25 or 26 years of age, a ſhort well made man, of a brown complexion, black hair, cut cloſe on the top of his head; had on, when he went away, a blue fearnought upper jacket, a dyed cotton ditto under it; he pretends to underſtand farming, and butchering: As to their apparel, it is very likely they may have changed them; it is ſuppoſed they will make towards Philadelphia, as one of them had run away ſome time ago, and was taken up and committed to Cheſter goal. Whoever takes up the ſaid ſervants, and ſecures them, ſo that their maſter may get them again, ſhall have a reward of Four Dollars, including what the law allows, paid by THOMAS RUTLAND. §

To be SOLD, by public VENDUE,

By the Subscribers, on Monday, the 19th of June, at two o' clock in the afternoon, on the premises,

A LOT of GROUND, and a two story brick HOUSE, with a good cellar under it, and two rooms on a floor, a brick kitchen, wooden stable, and other buildings, situate in Arch-street, opposite the Friends Burying-ground; the house and lot contains 20 feet in front on said street, and the lot extends in depth to Cherry-alley; the whole subject to a yearly groundrent of Four Pounds sterling. At the same time and place will also be sold, a lot of marsh land on Petty's Island, containing 4 acres and 70 poles. Also, sundry houshold goods, consisting of beds, bedding, drawers, &c. &c. late the estate of John Gaul, deceased. MICHAEL BAKER, JACOB RENO, and MAGDALENE GAUL, Execut. ¶

MADE and SOLD by the SUBSCRIBER, at the corner of Spruce and Second streets, near the Drawbridge, various kinds of WIRE WORK, such as rolling screens for cleaning wheat or flaxseed, standing screens for cleaning wheat or corn, round and square sieves and riddles, wire work for cellar and spring-house windows, wire for short cloths for millers, which have been found by experience to exceed the hair cloth; also Dutch fans, made in the newest and best manner. And as the Subscriber has heretofore given general satisfaction to those who have been pleased to favour him with their custom, he hopes to make it appear, that his work is equal, if not superior, to any in the province, he having put his works in the most compleat order, being able to supply his customers at the shortest notice. MOSES COX.

N. B. Whereas one James Fortner, shoemaker, hired a small shop of me, which he left, and sent me the key, in which shop I found a piece of stripe, hid under some dirt, a remnant of diaper, and 3 door keps; and as the above things are supposed to be stolen, any person having lost such, proving their property, and paying the charges, may have them again. ‡

STEPHEN PASCHALL, living in Market-street, Philadelphia, between 4th and 5th Streets, and BENJAMIN HUMPHREYS, living at the Corner of Ninth-street, and Market-street, aforesaid, make, and have now by them, for Sale, Screws for Clothiers, Timber Carriages, Tobacconists, Packing, &c. also Iron Work for Grist-Mills, Saw-Mills, and Fulling-Mills, where any Person may be supplied, by applying to either of them, with the abovementioned Work, or any other Sort of Screws that their Business may require, made well, with the utmost Expedition, and at reasonable rates, by STEPHEN PASCHALL, and BENJAMIN HUMPHREYS.

Said Paschall makes, and has now by him, several Pair of Smith's Bellows, for Sale.

Said Humphreys makes, and has now on Hand, a large Quantity of good Sickles, Scythes, Strawknives, bayknives, and Briar Scythes, ready for Sale. He hopes the Distance from Market will not discourage his Friends, and others, from applying to him, who will serve them at reasonable Rates.

ABSCONDED from Moorestown, in the county of Burlington, West-Jersey, a certain native Irishman, who calls himself JOHN RYNE, about 22 or 23 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, thick set, the small of his legs remarkably thick and fleshy, he wears his own brown straight hair, speaks bad English, is very talkative, much given to boasting of his abilities, is a very great liar, and a notorious rogue; had on and took with him, when he went away, a light coloured saggathy coat, one of the cuffs has four seams in it, a snuff coloured cloth jacket, lead coloured cloth breeches, several pair of stockings, one pair wove ribbed worsted stockings, one Philadelphia made hat, one English castor, and one fine shirt; his other clothes uncertain. Whoever takes up said John Ryne, and secures him in any of his Majesty's goals in the province of New-Jersey, or Pennsylvania, and sends word to either of the Subscribers, shall receive Forty Shillings reward, and reasonable charges. THOMAS MORTON, JOHN RISDON, SAMUEL BURROUGH, or STACY BUDD. §

RUN away from the Subscriber, living at Conegocheague, in Cumberland county, the 22d of May, an Irish servant man, named Matthew Cain, about 5 feet 6 inches high, of a fair complexion, about 22 years of age, short brown frizzled hair; had on, an old felt hat, light coloured broadcloth coat, blue cloth jacket, with sleeves, one white flannel ditto, without sleeves, leather breeches, with a seam across the seat, mixed yarn stockings, good shoes, with brass buckles; he is remarkably talkative, and in answering, yes sir, with the brogue, to every thing. He broke into a house, and stole money, and goods, too tedious to mention. He came in here from Dublin last June, and pretends to be a coach-maker; he is a good scholar, and perhaps will forge a pass, and change his name; it is likely he will put Mr. Allison's, or Mr. Maxwell's name to it. Whoever takes up said servant, and secures him, so that his master may have him again, shall have Forty Shillings reward, or if brought home Five Pounds, paid by me DAVID SCOTT.

N. B. As he has been used to the sea, it is thought he will endeavour to get on board a vessel; therefore, all masters of vessels are forbid to take him off at their peril. ‡

RUN away from the Subscriber, living near the head of Chester river, Queen-Anne's county, Maryland, in the night of the 14th instant, a convict servant man, named William Prees, about 50 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, is broad set, his hair almost white, the top of his head bald, and has a particular wink, or leer, with his eyes, when talking. Also a Negroe fellow, named Ben, between 30 and 40 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and very black. They took with them 4 pair of old leather breeches, a new white shirt, the linen about 3 s. per yard, 2 white, and 2 brown shirts, much worn, 2 white country kersey jackets, not milled, a dark coloured fearnought jacket, a white Welsh cotton ditto, a claret coloured and brown ditto, both cloth, a brown camblet coat, 3 felt hats, and 4 pair of shoes. Whoever takes up and secures the said convict and Negroe, or either of them, so that the Subscriber may have them again, shall receive Twenty Shillings each, if taken in the province, or Forty Shillings each, if taken out of the province, and reasonable charges.

JUST IMPORTED, in the Ship Chalkley, Peter Young, Commander, from BRISTOL, A Number of healthy, likely, English and Welch indented SERVANTS, most of them are Youths, from 14 to 21 Years of Age, amongst whom are several Tradesmen; also several young Women, whose Times are to be disposed of by JAMES and DRINKER, or by the Captain on board said Ship, at their Wharff.

To be SOLD, by public VENDUE,

On the 10th Day of June next ensuing the Date hereof, by the Subscribers (Executrix and Executor of the Last Will and Testament of Joshua Bond, late of Baltimore County, Maryland, deceased, and pursuant thereto, for Cash, or short Credit, on giving Security, if required,

A GOOD new Merchant-Mill and Grist-Mill, double geered, which are compleatly finished, with two Pair of Stones, two Boulting-Cloths and hoisting Geers, all going by Water. A good new framed Saw-Mill, well covered, and running Geers, in good Repair. The said Mills are built on an approved good Part of a never-failing Stream of Water, known by the Name of Winter's Run, and they being but about 6 Miles from Bush-River Landing, and 7 Miles from Joppa, in said County, and in a populous Neighbourhood, it renders the Grist-Mill extraordinary well situated for getting Grain, either for Merchant or Country Grist; and the Saw-Mill to have constant Employ, there being always great Demand for Plank of all Sorts. There is also to be sold, with said Mills, about 30 or 40 Acres of good Land adjoining thereto, well timbered, and great Part may (by little Expence) be made good Meadow of.

All Persons that have any just Demands against the Estate of the aforesaid Joshua Bond, are hereby desired to bring in their Accounts, regularly proved, that they may be adjusted. And all those that are indebted to the said Estate, are hereby once more requested to make immediate Payment, and by their so doing they will prevent Trouble (that must ensue from their Non-payment) to themselves, as well as to ANN BOND, Executrix,

May 13, 1769. ‖ WILLIAM BOND, Executor.

GIBSON and ASHETON,

In Market-street, near Fourth-street, have imported in the last Vessels from LONDON,

DUFFIELD and DELANY, Druggists,

Have just imported in the Pennsylvania Packet, Captain Falconer, from London;

A General assortment of DRUGS and Medicines, of the very best quality, and in excellent order; both chymicals, and galenicals, which they continue to sell as usual at Boerhaave's head, the corner of Second and Walnut-streets.

They have also for sale, best SWEET or SALLAD OIL, by the gallon or smaller quantity; Turlington's balsam; Daffy's elixir; Bateman's drops; Godfrey's cordial; Walker's jesuits drops; British oil; Anderson's, Hooper's and Lockyer's pill's; balsam of honey; and most of the patent medicines now in use, warranted genuine, and from the original warehouses.

MEDICINE CHESTS are put up by them of any prices, with plain and particular directions, so as to render them very useful and necessary to masters of vessels, managers of iron works, and gentlemen who have large families, and live at a distance from a physician. ¶

THE partnership of HUGH MEANS and MATTHEW IRVIN being expired, all persons indebted to them by bond, note or book debt, are requested to make speedy payment to HUGH MEANS only, in whose hands the company's books, &c. are, and who is fully authorized to receive the same; and those who have any demands upon the company, are desired to bring them in, that they may be adjusted and paid.------Such as are indebted above twelve months to said HUGH MEANS, on his own particular account, are also requested to pay, without further delay.

He is now opening, at his store in Chestnut-street, between Front and Second-streets, a fresh assortment of Merchandize, suitable to the season, imported per Captains Falconer and Friend, from London, which he will sell on the lowest Terms for cash, or the usual credit.

All persons indebted to the estate of SAMUEL MEANS, late of New-Castle county, deceased, are desired to pay, and those who have any demands thereon, to apply to HUGH MEANS, of Philadelphia, or ROBERT BRATTAN, of New-Castle county, Executors. ¶

THE PUBLIC are hereby made acquainted, That the CHALYBEATE SPRINGS, in the Borough of BRISTOL, are now cleared, and a convenient BATH and HOUSE built over the same, ready for the Reception of such Persons whose Disorders may require their Use. By an ANALYSIS of these WATERS, published last Year by the Philosophical Society, they appear to contain a Portion of Iron dissolved and suspended by a vitriolish Acid, in Water perhaps as pure as any hitherto discovered in any Part of the World, and, from every Experiment, answers the Description of the celebrated GERMAN SPAW.

It will be needless to publish the Uses of these WATERS, it is sufficient to say, they every Day become more general, and that Numbers of Disorders have been cured by them, that have eluded the most powerful Medicines; whoever would use them to advantage, should do it with the Advice of their Physicians, who may be fully informed of their component Principles, by the above mentioned ANALYSIS.

Such Persons whose Circumstances do not admit the Expence of Advice, will have it GRATIS, by a Gentleman practising Physic in BRISTOL.

In order more fully to ascertain the Virtue of these Waters, an exact Register is intended to be kept of every Person using the same, with its Effect, for which Purposes it is desired, that the Persons who intend to try it, would bring with them a short Account of their Case, drawn up by the Doctor attending them.

Such Persons who intend to use these Waters, are desired to acquaint JOHN PRIESTLEY, or CHARLES BESSONETT, thereof, who will provide proper Lodgings. ¶ 6 W.

PHILADELPHIA: Printed by DAVID HALL, and WILLIAM SELLERS, at the NEW PRINTING-OFFICE, near the Market.

Sussex County, May 8, 1769.

Messieurs HALL and SELLERS,

GENTLEMEN,

Please to insert the Inclosed in your useful Paper, and oblige your humble Servant, JOHN CLOWES.

A DEFENCE of the GRAND JURY, who were lately imprisoned by the Young Squires of Sussex, against the Misrepresentations of Mr. Boaz Manlove.

MUCH Noise, Dispute, and Calumny, has been occasioned by the Grand Jury's presenting Boaz Manlove for false Swearing in August last, by himself, Levin Crapper, and their Abettors; the Echo whereof has reached your City, and through the Channel of yours, and the other public Papers, reverberated to this, and the neighbouring Provinces; and as unprecedented and unparalelled Proceedings, unknown to an English free Government, have been consequent thereon, I thought it necessary to give a simple, but faithful Detail of the most material Circumstances relative thereto, from its Beginning to this present Time:---But shall at present only make some short Remarks on Boaz Manlove's Answer to the Grand Jury's Defence and Remonstrance, printed in the Supplement to the Pennsylvania Gazette, No. 2090. As he has now had his Trial, he cannot complain of prepossessing the Minds of the People before his Trial comes on.----He sets out with a pompous Exclamation, that "it is said to be the Privilege "of the meanest of the King's Subjects, to be presumed Innocent, "until his Guilt shall be made appear by a fair Trial."---But he did not consider the Injustice of murdering or maiming the Reputation of others, and leaving the bleeding Wounds to rankle and gangrene, until he should vouchsafe to take his Trial, which, from the Delay he had then given to it, I had Reason to believe would be long retarded, and which Experience has since evinced. The Necessity therefore of a speedy Antidote to their Venom, must be obvious to every discerning Person, and a full Justification of the Jury's Publication.---His second Paragraph charges the Jury with Want of Truth and Decency---with Falsehood, and Abuse of the Public; but whether they, or rather he, deserve those Charges, I hope, in the Course of these Remarks, to demonstrate. And indeed the Gentleman, or some other for him, has been extremely liberal of such Grub-street Epithets throughout the whole of their elaborate Piece.----But can he, or they, be so vain as to imagine the Public will credit their false Colouring, when opposed to a simple, plain, true and faithful Narrative of thirteen Freeholders, supported by other Testimonies; and published only to rescue their injured Characters from the Slander and Defamation of virulent Tongues?----The same Observation may be made on their fourth Paragraph, where (as also in other Parts) they artfully endeavour to change the Attack on the Whole of the Jury, to their Foreman only; pretending they cannot see "how Mr. "Clowes could possibly persuade the Jury, that it had any Ten-"dency to fix a Charge of Malice on them."----But, if they are such Owls and Buzzards, the Jury are surprized, in their Turn, to see an Attempt made to disjoin them, and that the Act of near the Whole, should be construed as the Act of only One.---It is Matter of Merriment to see the Pedant's Criticism on the Garnishee Act, and may perhaps, with what will be said hereafter, give us an Idea of the Man's Principles, when the Facts are known. Mr. Manlove was summoned as Garnishee, in September, 1767, but refused to appear and declare till April following, when he was compelled thereto by Warrant of Contempt.----Now if his Doctrine is admitted, that he "shall only declare what Goods "and Effects of the Defendant's he has now at the present Time," how easily might a Villain, in the Space of seven Months from the Time of Summons to appear, embezzel the Effects, defraud the honest Creditor, and elude the Law.----It can be therefore no Reflection on John Clowes, if he thought you Mr. Manlove perjured, that he then had a Design to sift into the Matter, and if he found the Charge well-founded, to bring you to Justice.----Ought not every honest Man to do the same, even if he had not been on the Jury, nor had taken the Oath, "diligently to enquire, and true Presentment make," &c.----But your saying, "'Tis thought," and "perhaps," with your succeeding String of Reasoning, and Deductions thereon, deserve rather Derision and Contempt, than a serious Reply; "Honi soit qui mal y pense."----"If I stand rightly informed," &c. why really, Sir, your Information is as false, as where you say, "the Court are determined to take no other No-"tice of the Jury's Remonstrance, unless perhaps to punish the "Authors for their Insolence;" when it is well known that one or more of their Members was engaged in writing your Defence, as one of them publickly fathered your spurious Brat, with so many Buts at the Close of your fifth Paragraph.---Your Appeal to the Public I heartily join in.---But why do you then so often prejudge the Premises yourself?----Surely it must argue your Fear, that your Cause will not bear the Scrutiny of that august and impartial Tribunal.----You say, "Far from convincing me;" Again, "I am afraid."----Again, "Have indeed a Tendency to raise "Suspicions unfavourable to my Character, is not disputed."---- Again, "The whole Affair then is no more than this."---Again, "This bare Declaration of my future Intentions, could not trans-"fer any Right, nor lay any Obligation on me to continue in the "same Purpose.---These Intentions, it is plain, proceeded mere-"ly from Generosity.----They were such as I was not obliged, "in Point of Justice, to propose."----And again, "With all "Men of Sense and Impartiality, those (Reasons) already given, "are sufficient for my Purpose."----Again, "Can any one be-"lieve he (John Clowes) did it with Reluctance? It cannot "be."----And again, "The Deposition (Truet's) cannot reflect "on the Jury."----Here, Sir, are a long String of Quotations from your inimitable Performance, to shew how dextrous you are at fast and loose, at giving and taking away.----But are you really sincere, when you say, after you had promised, and before Witness, to "make the most of the Goods of Walls (that you bought "at a low Rate) for his Benefit," you were under no Obligation to perform it? Who then will take your Word in future?---True, you "were not obliged, in Point of Justice, to propose such Ge-"nerosity."----But having proposed it, and thereby, by preventing others from buying, getting them "at a low Rate," you were obliged then, in Point of Justice, Honour and Conscience, to perform it.----With what astonishing Effrontery do you impose your Freehold Trial on the Public? Are you not ashamed to mention that Farce? Walls had a Right, under the Forty Shilling Act, to swear to your Assumption, and recover without, although he had also good Evidence to prove it; but to circumvent him, and varnish your dirty Cause, you make out an Accompt, Dr. and Cr. a Sample of Part is this; you credit him Twenty-seven Shillings for four Hogs, left under your Care, by Mr. Walls, when he went to the Back Woods.----These you took to your own Use, and debited him Twenty-five Shillings for driving them to your House, from a small Distance; leaving the poor Man only Two Shillings neat for his four Hogs: In the same Account were Fifteen Shillings you charged him with, which he made appear, by your own Book, to have been before charged to another Person. By such base Means you made a Ballance against him of Forty Shillings, to enable you to come under the Five Pound Act, and to procure a Freehold Trial. But were the Referees all Freeholders, as the Law in that Case directs? And does it appear, by their Award, that the "three" Men upon Oath found Walls in your Debt? The Cream of the Jest is this, immediately on their retiring to determine, one of them pronounced Walls Thirty Shillings in Debt: Another asserted Manlove was near as much in Walls's Debt; the third proposed to split the Difference, which being agreed to, brought Walls Eight-pence in Debt.----But he who spoke first, and lurched his Brethren, would not sign the Award.

And now, Sir, to apply your own Words, with a small Variation, "one would not surely have expected, that a Man, who "so often charges his Antagonist with a Lie, and who talks so "much of Truth and Decency, would even, like the common Sort "of Mankind, thus have had Recourse to Falshood."---But were I to enumerate all the Falshoods, Prevarications, Shifts, and Evasions, contained in your Piece, I should nearly transcribe the Whole: As where you say, not "Walls, but Clowes, was the "Complainant.----That you knew nothing of your Deposition "being taken in Writing, at the Time of your Examination---- "That Clowes has taken every Step since in his Power to have the "Affair brought before the Grand Jury.---That they have brand-"ed a great Majority of the Court with the Name of a Faction--- "That Clowes refused to stay at Mr. Crapper's till Truet should "come to have his Deposition rectified," &c. &c. &c. when, in Fact, Clowes called on Crapper for a Copy thereof, about Six in the Afternoon, and staid till Nine in the Night, for Truet's coming, and to obtain a Copy; during which Time he was never asked into the House.----Nor did he know that Truet intended to alter his "Deposition," even "if convinced of Error." Most of the other Falsities can be made appear by other Testimonies, beside the Grand Jury, whom you have thus vilified; your Insinuations then, Sir, concerning John Clowes, the rest of the Jury and Walls; I return on your own Head:---For, to use your own Phrase, "he "must be a Stranger in Sussex," that does not know that each Individual of the Jury stands much fairer in Character than yourself, to say nothing of your Friends in Court.---I did not propose to myself a methodical Answer to Mr. Manlove, nor to undertake a minute Justification of the Jury from his many abusive and slanderous Assertions and Suppositions, most of which I think carry their Refutation with them; for which Reason, I shall pass over his false Insinuation, that "the Jury were guilty of omitting "Words, wresting the Sense of others, varying in the Connection, "and mangling his Defence before them," with only this Remark, that if it appears confused and inconsistent, those who know his Talents, will not wonder at it.-----I now follow this doughty Champion, or rather the scribbling Squires, that wrote his Defence, through their Observations on the Jury's Address to the Court, where, I confess, they shine like Meteors, darting through the Air, portending Destruction, but hope the Duration of their Incroachments will be as short.-----"The Court are determined to "take no Notice of it, unless perchance to punish the Authors for their Insolence, that others may not dare such Insolence [again] for the future." Wholesome Doctrine this, in a free English Government! That an Address to the Court against the tyrannic Proceedings of some of its Members, by the Grand Jury, representing the Body of the County, is termed insolent, and they threatened with Punishment for daring it. Had you, Sir, or your Pedagogues, dared to speak such Language, at any Time, and in any Place where each Branch of the constitutional Powers of Government had its full and free Force, I question whether you or they would have escaped Punishment yourselves. And as to your mean uncharitable Insinuation of Insincerity in the Foreman, in saying he addressed the Court with Reluctance, by Order of his Brethren, and your Addition of merely, a Word you seem fond of, it deserves no other Notice than by mentioning it, to expose your Malice and Inveteracy. Of the same Stamp is also your allowing that they were charged "with Envy, Malice, and private Views, "on their Presentment, and adding, that it has, and will be often "said so, notwithstanding any thing they say to the contrary."--- Suppose, for Instance, it should still be said, you are guilty of the Perjury wherewith you were charged, notwithstanding you availed yourself of a Flaw in the Indictment to suppress the Evidence, and thereby prevented the hearing of any one Witness against you [for the King] on your Traverse, &c.----Would you deem it fair Dealing? Or, would not the World think there was more Reason for that Assertion, than to build on Opinion, Fancy, and Conjecture? And would they not be apt to say, you yourself was very doubtful that you could not support your Innocence, when your three Lawyers took up almost Half a Day in labouring to set aside the taking any Evidences against you, which, happily for you, they at length effected.---Had you, Gentlemen, acted the fair, honest and Christian Part, and took the Gazette, which contained a genuine Copy of the Jury's Address, as was often requested, or took the Original, which was offered you, or regarded their own Explanation, frequently repeated, your Logic would have failed you in saying they charged the whole Court, &c.---it was only those on the Bench, whose Heads the Cap fitted, that should have, or indeed could, put it on, while the more virtuous and judicious Part did not think themselves in the least affected by it.----Such is the Consequence of Phaeton's directing the Chariot of the Sun.----You say, "you enquired of several of the Justices that composed that "Court, who all deny the Charge, and say, they never heard any "such Thing mentioned by any Member thereof (viz.) that the "Jury in the Presentment were actuated, &c."----You either did not enquire of proper Persons, or you, or they must speak without a just Regard to Truth; the contrary can be easily proved.---If the Jury were mistaken in quoting the very Words of your Recommendation to his Honour, it is not strange. For that was done in Hugger Mugger by a few of the Magistracy, and offered to one to sign, who refused, from whom the Jury had their Intelligence.--- But why do you carp at the Mode of Expression, where the Sense is near the same? Is it not implied in their saying, "they found, "on Inquiry, you were innocent of the Charge," and referred his Honour to the Referee Trial, before mentioned, for Proof?---Really, Sir, much Pains have been taken to white-wash and varnish you; but, whether the Ethiopian, and Spots of the Leopard, do not appear through the Cob-web, might have been easily seen, by those who attended your late Trial, if they were not wilfully blind.--- And now, what profound Reasoning is this?---Because the Jury charge Levin Crapper, Esq; and his Party, &c. therefore they mean every Body;---the whole Court of Judicature as a Body,--- the whole Government, the whole County, &c.----Upon my Word, Sirs, whatever high Notions those few Gentlemen, that are aimed at, may have of themselves, and however they may stile themselves Legion, the Grand Jury never even dreamt till now, they were such a mighty and respectable Body.---But [Hark] "Has not the Conduct even of the King and Parliament been cal-"led at times in Question, and censured?" Has it so? And did the King and Parliament fine the Conservators of the Order of Government, for remonstrating to, or addressing them, as a Branch of the Body Politic, and until Fines and Fees were paid, commit them to Jail, as your Magistrates did the late Grand Jury? Amazing, that a few hot headed Justices, should get such a Kink of Despotism in their Brain, as to venture on an Act of Tyranny that the great Head of the Nation never thought proper to attempt! And then, by their dirty Sycophants, cry out, "where will these Measures "end? Hath any thing uncommon happened to this Jury above all "others?" Yes, ye Slaves, there has, and to conclude in your own Words, "That which may be a Means to subvert the Peace "and proper Order of the Community, of which you are Mem-"bers." But we hope the Clemency of the Governor will redress our Grievances, and restore Justice and Harmony to this County.

TO be SOLD, a three story brick house and lot, on the north side of Market-street, near the corner of Second-street, containing in front, on said street, 16 feet 6 inches, including a 3 feet alley, over which the house is built, and in length 102 feet. The house is 36 feet deep, with a brick kitchen, one story, and a small apartment, two stories high, between the house and kitchen; there is also at the end of said lot, a 2 story brick tenement, 16 feet by 15; bounded northward by Benjamin Hooton's lot, eastward by Hugh Hodge's house and lot, and westward by the house and lot now in the tenure of the widow Coombes; subject to a groundrent of 12 l. currency per annum, and is insured for 7 years. For further particulars, enquire of JOSEPH REDMAN, in Market-street, or Dr. JOHN REDMAN, in Second-street.

TO be sold, by public sale, the 23d day of June next, at the house of Caleb Way, in West-Caln township, Chester county, The one undivided half part of a well accustomed brew and malt-house, situate in London Port Town, in the township and county aforesaid, on the main provincial road, leading from Philadelphia to Lancaster, together with all the utensils for carrying on the same, all in good order, with some barrels and hogsheads; likewise a large stone building, which may readily be converted into a compleat dwelling-house, being two story high, covered with cedar shingles; none of the buildings exceed 5 years since first built, which are all stone and lime, within 5 rods of a spring head, which is communicated into the steep, likewise through the brew-house cellar; it is the most convenient brewery of its size in Pennsylvania, and in as plentiful a part for barley as any on the continent. There is likewise to be sold, at said time and place, 10 or 15 acres of woodland, very convenient. The vendue to begin at 10 o' clock on said day; where due attendance will be given, and the terms of sale made known, by me

RUN away from his bail, living in Queen-Anne's county, Maryland, a certain AARON YOE, he is about 5 feet 6 inches high, of a dark complexion, wears his own hair; had on, and took with him, when he went away, an old felt hat, an old claret coloured coat, a country made shirt, and a pair of old black breeches; his other apparel unknown. Whoever takes up said person, and secures him, so that the Subscribers (who are his bail in several actions) may get him again, shall receive Forty Shillings Pennsylvania currency reward, paid by

THOMAS WRIGHT,
April 26, 1769. WILLIAM YOE.

WHEREAS, a certain William Beard, of the township of Cumberland, in the county of York, and province of Pennsylvania, obtained a note of hand of me the Subscriber, payable upon demand, bearing date the 20th day of November, 1768, for the sum of Forty-five Pounds, money of Pennsylvania; these are to forewarn all persons from taking an assignment on said note, as I have never received any consideration for the same, it being obtained in a fraudulent manner, when I was in liquor, and am determined never to pay it, or any part thereof.

HUGH BROWN.

TEN POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the Subscriber, living on Kent-Island, Queen-Anne's county, Maryland, the 9*th of May instant, at night, two servant men, viz. John Jennings, a convict, by trade a shoemaker; and Benjamin Webber, an indented servant, a weaver by trade; said Jennings is about* 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, of a thin visage, has a scar across his left cheek, has thin brown hair, fresh cut on the crown, but may have it cut off, is fond of strong liquor, and when drunk is very bold; both of them are Englishmen, born in or near Coventry; Jennings took a pair of leather breeches, patched, and sewed with white thread, a bearskin jacket, made in a plain manner, a bearskin great coat, almost new, of a light cloth colour, old hat, a pair of new shoes that do not fit him, and other things unknown; it is probable they may change their dress and names, and I do expect they have a forged pass or discharge, on some assignment or indenture: Benjamin Webber has a bearskin jacket, made in a plain manner, a bearskin surtout, mended on the elbows with another sort of cloth, white hose, his shoes have been lately soaled, with other things unknown. Whoever takes up said servants, and secures them in any goal in this province, shall have Three Pounds reward, current money, for Jennings, and Forty Shillings for Webber, and if out of the province Six Pounds for Jennings, and Four Pounds for Webber, and reasonable charges, if brought to Queen's-Town goal, paid by

BENJAMIN KIRBY.

N. B. Jennings took with him a good sett of shoe-maker's tools, and some leather; I forewarn all masters of vessels taking them on board.

Whoever apprehends the perſon or perſons that took the ſaid pocket-pook, ſo that he or they be brought to juſtice, and the papers and money got again, ſhall have the above reward; or, Fifty Shillings for the pocket-book and papers only, and no queſtions aſked.
† JOSHUA EVANS.

N. B. If any perſon ſhould offer to aſſign over any bills or bonds, payable to the Subſcriber, the perſon to whom ſuch aſſignment may be offered is requeſted to apprehend him, and ſecure the bonds.

MIFFLIN and DEAN,

HAVE imported from London, a large ASSORTMENT of SPRING-GOODS, which are now opening, at their Store, the Corner of Front and Cheſtnut-ſtreets. Tbctf.

EIGHT DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away, the 30th of March laſt, from the Subſcriber, living in Newlin townſhip, Cheſter county, an Engliſh ſervant man, named William Smithes, of a ſwarthy complexion, has ſtrait black hair, about 5 feet 5 inches high, about 18 or 20 years of age; had on, and took with him, a brown camblet coat, more than half worn, with a ſmall piece ſewed between the ſhoulders, a ſeaman's blue jacket, with horn buttons, ſlaſh ſleeves, and a good deal broken, two ſhirts, one white, the other check, old brown breeches, old tow trowſers, old felt hat, worſted ſtockings, and ſtrong ſhoes, tied with thongs. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above reward, paid by JOHN BAILY.

N. B. All maſters of veſſels are are forbid to carry him off at their peril. ‡

CAME to the plantation of the ſubſcriber, in Paſſyunk townſhip, a cheſtnut bay HORSE, about 14 hands high, has ſeveral ſaddle marks, a buſhy mane, and ſwitch tail. The owner is deſired to come, prove his property, pay charges, and take him away. GEORGE LESSER. ¶

RUN away from the SUBSCRIBER, living in Trenton, Weſt New-Jerſey, on the 18th day of March, an Iriſh ſervant lad, named MICHAEL BRADY, about 19 years of age, about 5 feet 4 inches high, well ſet, very thick legs, and knock kneed, fair complexion, full grey eyes, and lightiſh ſhort hair; had on, and took with him, a brown thickſet fuſtian coat and breeches, and a green cloth jacket, with flat metal buttons on them, a pair of blue ſtocking breeches, one linen jacket, with red ſtripes, one white and ozenbrigs ſhirt, coarſe grey yarn ſtockings, new pumps, with long quarters, with metal buckles in them, and coarſe felt hat. He is a ſhoemaker by trade, and pretends to the ſtuff work. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant in any of his Majeſty's goals, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have THREE POUNDS reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by ‡ WILLIAM TUCKER.

N. B. He may very probably change his name and clothes, as he is a crafty fellow.

ALL Perſons indebted to the Eſtate of ADAM EVEY, late of the City of Philadelphia, Wharff Builder, deceaſed, are deſired to make immediate Payment; and thoſe that have any Demands againſt the ſaid Eſtate, are requeſted to bring in their Accounts, that they may be adjuſted and ſettled, by SUSANNA EVEY, Adminiſtratrix. §

THE Subſcriber hereof having heretofore been poſſeſſed of a conſiderable eſtate, but by the unforeſeen hardneſs of the times, diſappointments, and loſſes in trade, and otherwiſe, the low price in ſale of his lands, which have been ſold for the benefit of his creditors, has rendered him unable to ſettle with his creditors to their full demands, to which ſome of ſaid creditors are willing to compound, and be ſatisfied, but others being of a more craving, relentleſs diſpoſition, refuſe to comply with any terms, till the whole of their debts are paid, which his circumſtances render him incapable to do at preſent, though he is willing to give up his all to them; but have confined him in the county goal at Glouceſter, for near ſeven months paſt, which puts him under the diſagreeable neceſſity, as the laſt reſource, to ſeek ſome other method for aid. Theſe are therefore to give notice to all perſons concerned, that he purpoſes to apply at the next meeting of the General Aſſembly of the province of New-Jerſey, for relief in the premiſes.
¶ WILLIAM BURNET.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, will be expoſed to public Sale, on Thurſday, the 8th of June, at 7 o'clock in the Evening, at the London Coffee-Houſe, a certain meſſuage, or tenement, and two tracts of land, ſituate in the townſhip of Paſſyunk, one of them containing 10 acres and 68 perches, bounded by lands of George Gray, John Reily, Benjamin Davis, and Samuel Bettle, and a certain two perch road; the other of them, containing 10 acres and 90 perches, bounded by a road leading from Philadelphia to Paſſyunk-bank, by the above deſcribed tract, and lands of Samuel Preſton Moore; late the eſtate of John Heaton; ſeized and taken in execution by

JOSEPH REDMAN, Sheriff.

Cheſter, May 20, 1769.

STRAYED, or ſtolen, the beginning of this inſtant May, a dark grey MARE, 5 years old this ſpring, ſhod all round, paces, trots, and gallops, carries low, no brand or mark known of; ſhe has a good deal of white in her face, and is near 14 hands high. Whoever has taken up ſaid mare, and will bring her to me, the Subſcriber, ſhall have Fifteen Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by DAVIS BEVAN.

N. B. Any perſon who has the mare, is deſired to adverti ſe her in the next paper, and not work her, at their peril. ‡

New-Caſtle, May 20, 1769.

TO be ſold, by virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court, for the county of New-Caſtle, on the 20th day of June, on the premiſes, and may be entered on immediately after the ſale, 175 acres of land (late belonging to Auguſtine Hicks, deceaſed) in Apoquinimy Hundred, and county aforeſaid, being part of Bottle-Neck Plantation, about 4 miles from Duck-Creek town, and one from a convenient landing on Duck-Creek. The above tract is deemed as good land for graſs, grain, or tobacco, as any in the government, the ſurface being a rich black mould, on a ſtratum of rich clay, or marl, the whole on being cleared will produce excellent graſs, without any manure; there are about 60 acres of clear land, 40 of which is in clover and blue graſs, the reſt timber land, chiefly white oak; there is on the premiſes, a new ſquare log houſe, 20 by 25 feet, roofed with cedar, a large frame building, in which there is an horſe-mill for ſawing timber, of the beſt conſtruction, a ſmall peach and apple orchard, by DAVID FINNEY, Adminiſtrator.

The ſaid David Finney hath likewiſe to diſpoſe of, the remainder of Bottle-Neck Plantation, equal in quality with the above deſcribed land, with about 50 acres of cripple and maple ſwamp thereto adjoining, which will make excellent meadow, at a ſmall expence, being ſecured from the tide by a bank of 48 perches long, in good repair, in which there is a ſluice ſufficient to vent all the back water, the ſaid bank incloſes about 300 acres of cripple and low ground. The whole neck is incloſed by a new fence of 130 perches long; 7 years will be allowed for payment of the purchaſe money of the remainder of the tract, paying intereſt. ¶

To be SOLD, by public VENDUE,

On the 15th day of June next, at the houſe of Robert Wilds, at the Croſs-Roads, near Saliſbury,

FOUR valuable tracts of land, ſituate in Duck-Creek Hundred, and county of Kent, upon Delaware, viz. One tract containing 100 acres, on Pearman's Branch, and Gravelly Run, adjoining ſaid Croſs-Roads, which may be laid out in convenient lots; another tract containing 150 acres, adjoining lands of William Killen, Eſq; another tract called Newberry, containing 400 acres; and one other tract, containing 209 acres, called Golden Grove. An indiſputable title will be made. The ſale to begin at 10 o' clock on ſaid day, when attendance will be given by DAVID FINNEY, and JOHN BELL. ¶

WAS ſtolen, from the Subſcriber, living in New-Caſtle, in the night of the 15th inſtant, off the Green in New-Caſtle, a bay MARE, about 13 Hands high, with a long bobbed tail, and long mane, has a ſmall ſpot by the joining of the crupper to the ſaddle, which was rubbed by the buckle of the crupper, paces a ſmall travel, trots and canters, new ſhoes on her fore feet, neither brand nor ear-mark. Whoever takes up and ſecures the thief and mare, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and for the mare only, if found within 20 miles of New-Caſtle, Ten Shillings, if more than 20 miles Fifteen Shillings, and reaſonable charges, paid by

May 17, 1769. JOHN RIDDLE. ¶

WHEREAS I Jacob Stouffer, of Mountjoy townſhip, in the county of Lancaſter, gave unto my brother's ſon, Jacob Stouffer, in April laſt, a bond ſigned by me for the ſum of 194 l. lawful money of Pennſylvania, which bond is due on the 2d or 3d day of June next; but whereas I and the ſaid Jacob Stouffer had accounts to ſettle with each other, and in ſettling the ſame, an error or miſtake was made, ſo that I have given him the ſaid bond for a much larger ſum than is coming to him; and as I have ſince deſired him to look over the accounts, and ſee them right done, but he refuſing it, I therefore deſire that no perſon may take an aſſignment of the ſaid bond from the ſaid Jacob Stouffer, as I am not willing to pay the ſame, until the ſaid accounts are ſettled. § JACOB STOUFFER.
